TEXT

Item 7 – General - DD Regulatory (Reactive Monitoring)

Evaluation of the Reactive Monitoring process

4. Taking note with appreciation of the evaluation of the Reactive Monitoring process launched by the World Heritage Centre, thanks the State Party of Switzerland for its financial support, as well as the experts tasked with this evaluation for their thorough analysis of this process, instrumental in achieving the objectives of the World Heritage Convention;

5. Expresses its gratitude to all the stakeholders of the Convention who have actively contributed to this evaluation;

6. Notes that the recommendations formulated in the evaluation refer to improvements of the current practices and do not call for structural changes nor amendments to the statutory documents, and requests all stakeholders of the Convention to take them onboard and implement them at their level as soon as possible;

7. Agrees that the World Heritage Centre should prioritise implementation of the high priority recommendations, with an initial focus on those relevant to communication, capacity building, including for site managers, and finance.

8. Also requests the World Heritage Centre to present a progress report on the implementation of the recommendations, for examination by the World Heritage Committee at its 44th session in 2020;
