SUMMARY

This document presents the list of state of conservation reports which the World Heritage Centre and the Advisory Bodies propose to be discussed by the World Heritage Committee, as well as those requested by World Heritage Committee members as indicated in Document WHC-12/36.COM/INF.7.

The document also includes the list of the reactive monitoring missions requested for adoption by the World Heritage Committee at its 36th session (Saint Petersburg, 2012).
I. Agenda Item 7A - State of conservation of the properties inscribed on the List of World Heritage in Danger

See Documents:
WHC-12/36.COM/7A
WHC-12/36.COM/7A.Add

According to Paragraph 190 of the Operational Guidelines, the World Heritage Committee “shall review annually the state of conservation of properties on the List of World Heritage in Danger. This review shall include such monitoring procedures and expert missions as might be determined necessary by the Committee”.

However, at its 35th session (UNESCO, 2011), the World Heritage Committee adopted Decision 35 COM 12B para.10 and decided to default to a minimum two-year cycle for the discussion of the properties inscribed on the List of World Heritage in Danger, except for cases of utmost urgency.

As indicated in Document WHC-12/36.COM/INF.7, World Heritage Committee members requested to discuss some state of conservation reports which were initially submitted for adoption without discussion. These additional reports are highlighted in grey in the list below.

The properties for discussion during the 36th session of the World Heritage Committee are presented below in the order according to which the reports will be discussed.
