

To every professional, actively involved in the management of Caribbean heritage.

Are you considering possibilities for improving your knowledge and skills in (world) heritage management?

Here's your chance!

From November 2 - 13, 2009 you can attend the first edition of the

Caribbean Heritage Course in Curaçao

This course is organized by the University of the Netherlands Antilles in cooperation with UNESCO and consists of the Course Modules I and V of

UNESCO's Caribbean Capacity Building Program (CCBP) for heritage professionals.

The course will be held in Willemstad, the inspiring World Heritage capital of Curaçao.

- Course Module I will be from November 2 - 6, 2009
- Course Module V (only possible in combination with module I) will be from November 9 - 13, 2009.

Curaçao Monument Funds Foundation

Curaçao Department of Urban and Regional Development, Planning and Housing

Teaching Staff:

Internationally renown heritage specialists, including:

Isabel Rigol (Cuba)
Herb Stovel (Canada)

For more information and your registration, please check our website:

<http://www.una.an/caribbeanheritagecourse>

Looking forward to welcoming you in November on our beautiful island,

Cees van de Sande

Associate professor at the department of Architecture and Urban Development, University of the Netherlands Antilles

Michael Newton

Conservation architect at the Curaçao Monuments Fund Foundation.

UNESCO/Netherlands
Funds-in-trust

UNESCO, Havana
Office

Convención del
Patrimonio Mundial

UNESCO, World
Heritage Center