

Thursday, march 21
Morning

Thursday, march 21
Afternoon

● 8h30-9h30 WELCOME RECEPTION AND REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPANTS

● 9h30-9h45 OPENING ADDRESSES

- Jean-Pierre Bobenriether, Director of the Paris-Belleville National School of Architecture
- Pierre-Antoine Gatier, President of ICOMOS France

● 9h45-10h45 INTRODUCTION TO THE THEME BY SPECIAL GUESTS

- Stéphanie Dupuy-Lyon*, Assistant Director for Quality of Living Environment at the French Ministry of Ecology, Sustainable Development and Energy, or a representative
- Marie Prost-Coletta, Ministerial Delegation for Accessibility at the French Ministry of Ecology, Sustainable Development and Energy
- François Chatillon, President of the Company of Chief Architects of Historic Monuments

● 10h45-12h15 PUBLIC POLICIES: BETWEEN INCENTIVE MEASURES AND PRESCRIPTION

Pragmatic approaches or statutory requirements of public policies in Europe

- Laurent Saby, Accessibility research manager at CERTU (Study Centre on networks, transports, planning and public buildings)

Equality of rights and opportunities, involvement and citizenship of disabled persons in France

- Eric Alexandre, Project manager at the Ministerial Delegation for Accessibility (French Ministry of Ecology, Sustainable Development and Energy)

Ireland: raising awareness among stakeholders as a policy

- Grainne Shaffrey, Architect, Shaffrey Associates Architects, Dublin

Consultation and dialogue with organisations in Hungary

- Tamas Féjerdy, former Vice-President of the National Directorate of Cultural Heritage (Kulturális Örökségvédelmi Hivatal, KÖH), Secretary-General of ICOMOS Hungary

● 12h15-12h30 DEBATE

● 12h30 MORNING SESSION CLOSING ADDRESS

- Bertrand-Pierre Galey, Assistant Director for Architecture at the General Direction of Heritage of the French Ministry of Culture

● 14h00-16h00 EUROPEAN TOWNS AND CITIES FOR ALL MINDFUL OF THEIR HISTORY

Session president:

Frédéric Auclair, President of the National Association of the Architectes des Bâtiments de France

Arles, an accessible protected area

- Christian Mourisard, Deputy Mayor of Arles in charge of Tourism and Heritage, Vice President of ICOMOS France
- Bouzid Sabeg, Director of Heritage at the City of Arles

Ávila, a medieval town surrounded by walls

- José Francisco Hernández Herrero, City Councillor for Local Administration and Security
- Rosa M. Jiménez de Miguel, Municipal Office of Accessibility

Bordeaux, Port of the Moon, a city with a Disability Charter

- Joël Solari, Bordeaux City Councillor in charge of disability policies
- François Gondran, Head of the Local Department of Architecture and Heritage of Gironde, Vice President of ICOMOS France

The City of Kraków: a challenge for accessibility

- Bogdan Dasal, President of Kraków Plenipotentiary for the Disabled Persons

● 16h00-16h15 DEBATE

● 16h15-16h30 BREAK

● 16h30-18h00 REGENERATING HISTORIC CENTRES

Mulhouse and its tourist cultural itinerary

- Thierry Nicolas, Deputy Mayor of Mulhouse in charge of disability policies
- Olivier Lonpret, Director of department of public roads at the City of Mulhouse

Reims, the Cathedral district and the Palais du Tau

- Danièle Deal, Director of Works Department at the Centre des Monuments Nationaux (CMN, French Office for National Monuments)

Marseilles, an urban route to the Fort Saint-Jean

- Jean-Pierre Dufay, Director General of OPPIC (Public operator)

● 18h00-18h30 DEBATE

● 18h30 COCKTAIL RECEPTION

Friday march 22
Morning

Friday, march 22
Afternoon

● ACCESSIBLE MONUMENTS AND SITES IN FRANCE AND OTHER COUNTRIES

● 8H30-9H00 WELCOME RECEPTION AND REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPANTS

● 9H00-13H00 MONUMENTS FOR ALL

President:

- Kirsti Kovanen Secretary General of ICOMOS

Moderator:

- Marielle Richon, former Programme Specialist at UNESCO World Heritage Centre

● 9H00-10H30

The local City Halls of Paris as symbols of a Republican democracy

- Marie-Hélène Borie*, Director of Heritage and Architecture, City of Paris

- Thierry Balereau, Chief Architect, City of Paris

The restoration of the 24-columns Courthouse in Lyon

- Denis Eyraud, Engineer-Architect, Metropolis Architectes Associés SA, Lyon

The Petit Palais, City of Paris Fine Art Museum: the rebirth of a place as rebirth of its history

- Gilles Chazal, Director of the Petit Palais Museum

● 10H30-10H45 DEBATE

● 10H45-11H00 BREAK

● 11H00-12H45

The Oriel Centre, former Dundalk Goal in Ireland: preservation of the spirit of the place

- John Deaton, Architect, Deaton Lysaght Architects, Dublin

The Roundhouse in London, a former steam-engine repair shed in Camden

- David Bonnett, Accessibility Consultant, David Bonnett Associates, London

The Läckö Castle in Sweden

- Per-Anders Johansson, National Property Board Sweden (SFV)

The new path to the cathedrals

- Gérard Goudal, General Inspector of Architecture and Heritage, French Ministry of Culture

● 12H45-13H00 DEBATE

● 14H00-15H15 ACCESSIBLE PROTECTED SITES

Session President:

- Tamas Féjerdy, former Vice-President of the National Directorate of Cultural Heritage (Kulturális Örökségvédelmi Hivatal, KÖH), Secretary-General of ICOMOS Hungary

Moderator:

- Anne Vourc'h, Director of the Réseau des Grands Sites de France (RGSF)

The Romelaëre ponds reserve in Pas-de-Calais: natural areas made accessible to all

- Christian Ringot, Director of Communication, Education and Partnerships at Eden 62,

- Kevin Winiez, Manager of Communication and Accessibility at Eden 62

The Estuary of the Gironde River 'Grand site' and the transporter bridge of Rochefort-Echillais

- Rémi Decoster, Director of development and projects,

- Samantha Bertrand, Accessibility and Tourism Project Manager, Greater Rochefort Authority

The Maritime fortress of Suomenlinna in Finland

- Niina, Kilpelä, Architect, The Threshold Association / Kynnys ry

● 15H15-15H30 DEBAT

● 15H30-16H45 IS ACCESSIBILITY A THREAT OR AN OPPORTUNITY FOR HERITAGE?

Round-table moderated by Marie Prost Coletta, Ministerial Delegate for Accessibility at the French Ministry of Ecology, Sustainable Development and Energy

With :

- Philippe Bélaval, President of the Centre des Monuments Nationaux (CMN, French Office for National Monuments)

- Pierre-Antoine Gatier, Chief Architect of Historic Monuments, President of ICOMOS France

- Nicolas Mérille, National Advisor for accessibility and universal design, Association des Paralysés de France (French paralysed people's association)

- Danièle Pourtaud, Deputy Mayor for Heritage, President of the Vieux Paris Commission

- Christophe Vallet, President of the Public Operator for works of the French Ministry of Culture

● 16H45 CLÔTURE

- Francesco Bandarin, Assistant Director-General for Culture, UNESCO