4.3. Management System / Management Plan

4.3.1 - Management System

The Suso Monastery is the property of the Spanish State and the Yuso Monastery belongs to the Recolletes Augustinian Order. Direct management is the responsibility of the Government of La Rioja, through its Historical Artistic Heritage Service, on behalf of the Spanish Government and of the monastic Order respectively. Part of the Yuso Monastery has been leased by the Augustinian Order to the Government of La Rioja for fifty years. It is currently used as a hotel and as a centre for the study of the Spanish language. The Yuso Monastery has been the subject of an intensive technical study, and this forms part of the overall management plan being developed by the recently formed Foundation for the Protection of the Suso and Yuso Monasteries of San Millán de la Cogolla (Patronato para la Protección de los Monasterios de Suso y Yuso de San Millán de la Cogolla). This independent body has been set up by the Government of La Rioja and comprises representatives of the Municipal Council of San Millan, the Augustinian Community, and the General Directorates within the Government of La Rioja with responsibilities for culture, public works, planning, environment, and other relevant fields. A legally constituted steering group or similar management committee (El Patronato) has been set up in 1998 to guide the management of the site. The main functions are: to foster the protection and care of the Monasteries and their natural surroundings; to research, document and disseminate the origins of the Spanish (Castilian) language; to foster the social, economic, cultural and tourist development of San Millán and its surroundings. The site is managed by the State Party and the management is under protective legislation.
