

2019 Survey for UNESCO Member States on the Thematic Indicators for Culture in the 2030 Agenda

UNESCO Member States are requested to submit their completed survey to the Culture|2030 Indicators Project team in the Culture sector by 27 June 2019 at the latest.

The 2030 Agenda reflects a broad view of culture that includes cultural heritage, culture and creative industries, local culture, materials, and products, culture’s contribution to sustainable development, values, knowledge and practices of local communities, and cultural diversity. The UNESCO Thematic Indicators for Culture (Culture|2030 Indicators) is a framework of indicators whose purpose is to measure and monitor thematically, the progress of culture’s enabling contribution to the national and local implementation of the Goals and Targets of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The Culture|2030 Indicators support and complement the global indicators agreed upon within the framework of the 2030 Agenda and foster linkages between different goals and targets. The document describing the ongoing project on Culture|2030 Indicators is available here.

Kindly complete the survey by typing answers directly into this form. Please email any queries to the following address: Culture2030Indicators@unesco.org

In the interests of transparency, surveys will be compiled and made available online.

Thank you for your attention.
