

WHV - The Feast of Na-Tcha in the Historic Centre of Macao

Historic Centre of Macao, China

Cultural property inscribed on the World Heritage List since 2005

June 2021 (dates tbc)

With its historic street, residential, religious and public Portuguese and Chinese buildings, the historic centre of Macao provides a unique testimony to the meeting of aesthetic, cultural, architectural and technological influences from East and West. It bears witness to one of the earliest and longest-lasting encounters between China and the West, based on the vibrancy of international trade.

Project objectives:

Being implemented for the sixth year in the framework of WHV and supporting one of the most important cultural festivals, reflecting the fusion of different cultures that characterize the historic core zone, the project aims at promoting a better understanding and preservation of Macao's Outstanding Universal Value as a city that favored an important interchange of human values in the various fields of culture, sciences, technology, art and architecture over several centuries.

Project activities:

The volunteers will design World Heritage promotional materials and run seminars, roadshows and site tours to promote, improve the understanding, and enhance actions for heritage preservation in the society, with a focus on young people, tourists, local stakeholders and concerned authorities.

Partners:

Association of Macao Chi San Na-Tcha Temple, Macao Heritage Ambassadors Association, Macao Foundation, Education and Youth Affairs Bureau, Macao Government Tourism Office.

Macao New Chinese Youth Association (MNCYA)

Mr Lam Ka Seng (Cristiano)

mymacau@macau.ctm.net