

World Heritage Canopy: Heritage Solutions for Sustainable Futures

Submission form for case studies related to urban heritage and sustainable development

World Heritage Canopy is a living platform of innovative strategies and practices that integrate heritage conservation with sustainable development. Within the framework of the World Heritage Cities Programme, the World Heritage Centre is collecting examples of management practices, initiatives and activities related to World Heritage and historic cities. The World Heritage Cities Programme is one of the six thematic programmes approved and monitored by the World Heritage Committee.

In order to learn more about your initiative and to explore possibilities to feature it through some of our channels (Urban Notebooks e-newsletter, website, etc.), we kindly request that you fill out this form. To submit more than one initiative, please complete a separate form for each initiative.

When filling in this form, we kindly ask you to use a pdf editor such as Adobe Acrobat Reader and avoid hand-writing. Please email your submissions to worldheritagecities@unesco.org with the subject line "[Name of city, country] World Heritage Canopy case study".
