5. General Policy Development

5.1. Principal pieces of national cultural and/or natural heritage legislation

5.1.1 - Principal pieces of national legislation for the protection, conservation and presentation of the State Party's cultural and/or natural heritage

Comment

Bosnia and Herzegovina has highly decentralized system of government. It consists of two entities, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (FBiH) and the Republika Srpska (RS) and Brčko district (DB). The Federation of BiH consists of 10 Cantons. There is no national/State level legislation concerning cultural and natural heritage protection. These areas are regulated by the entity level laws and bylaws, as well cantonal laws in those Cantons which adopted their own laws.

5.2. Comment on principal pieces of legislation

14. Good Practice in the Implementation of the World Heritage Convention

14.1 - Example of good practice in World Heritage protection, identification, conservation or management at the State Party level.

Following the WHC Decision on inscription of serial transnational property Ste ci - Medieval Tombstone Graveyards on the WHL, four participating State parties (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Montenegro and Serbia) have successfully started implementing activities defined by the Management Plan: A coordination system has been established to manage this serial property. The International Coordination Committee (MKO) was established, in which representatives of all four States were appointed, and each country individually established its structure for governing the property in accordance with the Management Plan. The Secretariat of the International Coordination Committee has been established, with its headquarter at the Ministry of Civil Affairs of BiH. The implemented management system includes local community, municipalities, entity levels in BiH and international cooperation of 4 States Parties. Successful cooperation in management of this serial property is further proof of contribution of Ste ci as World Heritage site to the enhancement of regional cooperation and cooperation among the States Parties thus ensuring peace, reconciliation, stability, sustainable development and sustainable management of common cultural heritage, as also recognized by the Decision of the World Heritage Committee.
