13.4. Additional actions for the implementation of the World Heritage Convention

13.4.1 - Please indicate any additional actions for the implementation of the World Heritage Convention

14. Good Practice in the Implementation of the World Heritage Convention

14.1 - Example of good practice in World Heritage protection, identification, conservation or management at the State Party level.

In the past few years, a process of cataloguing all the single elements (ie single megalithic blocks) for all the sites forming part of the inscription 'The Megalithic Temples of Malta' has been initiated and is now almost completed (such work for one final site is programmed, to be concluded in 2023). This cataloguing system, more commonly used for moveable artefacts, will ensure a more detailed documentation in Condition Assessments, as well as conservation interventions. This will allow full traceability of all documents related to specific individual elements within sites, through time, informing decisions and enabling a more detailed documentation of assessments and intervention history within each site. This project is being conducted by Heritage Malta.

14.2 - Define which topics are covered by this example of good practice at the State Party level.

State of Conservation
Management
Capacity Building

15. Assessment of the Periodic Reporting Exercise
