13.3. Priority Actions Assessment

13.3.1 - Please indicate priority actions to address items rated as poor

2.4	Cooperation and synergies between the Conventions and programmes your State is party to/is associated with/intends to join
		Action	Short description	Authority(ies) responsible	Timeframe	May this action require International Assistance from the World Heritage Fund?
2.4.4	World Heritage Focal Points are not involved in the revision and implementation of national cultural heritage strategies, policies and action plans, beyond specific issues related to World Heritage	The involvement of World Heritage Focal Points in the review and implementation of national cultural heritage strategies, policies and action plans is only required when dealing with World Heritage matters.	These specific actions are about new legal norms, such as, Bills presented in the Congress of the Republic, public investment projects in World Heritage sites presented by the Executive.	Focal Point: World Heritage Sites Directorate	National culture policy to 2030	Through capacity building

5.9	Policies giving cultural and natural heritage a function in the life of communities
5.9.1	• There are no specific policies to give this heritage a function in the life of communities but this is being achieved on an ad hoc basis - natural heritage	The current national regulations on Cultural Heritage do not contemplate specific policies to give this heritage a function in the life of the communities. It is necessary to elaborate ad hoc norms that allow the implementation of specific policies.	Law No. 28296 -General Law of Cultural Heritage of the Nation- does not establish specific actions to develop this function. It is necessary to develop specific regulations on this case with special emphasis on World Heritage.	Focal point: SERNANP	2030	Through capacity building

5.11	Integration of the conservation and protection of cultural and natural heritage as a strategic element in national sustainable development policies and strategies

5.11.1	• There is limited integration of the conservation and protection of cultural and natural heritage as a strategic element in national sustainable development policies and strategies in: • Achieving gender equality • Ensuring growth, employment, income and livelihoods • Strengthening capacity-building, innovation and local entrepreneurship • Ensuring conflict prevention • Protecting heritage during conflict	National policies and strategies for sustainable development do not consider the protection and conservation of cultural and natural heritage as a strategic element because, unfortunately, its protection is seen as an obstacle to development.	In national and subnational policies and strategies for sustainable development, the inclusion of the protection and conservation of cultural heritage as a strategic element depends on the political will of the responsible authorities.	Authorities of the National Government and subnational governments.	2030	Through the implementation of projects and strengthening

5.14	Use of policies and strategies agreed by the World Heritage Committee or the World Heritage General Assembly to set national policies or strategies for the protection of the cultural and natural heritage
5.14.2	There is limited coordination or integration of the implementation of multilateral agreements, programmes and World Heritage policies and strategies	Many times national and subnational authorities are unaware of the importance and need to comply with multilateral agreements, programs, policies and strategies of World Heritage, therefore coordination or integration is limited.	The mayors of the Historic Centers inscribed on the World Heritage List are the most aware of the importance and need to comply with multilateral agreements, programs and World Heritage strategies.	Authorities of the National Government and subnational governments.	2026	Through the implementation of projects and capacity building

7	Status of Services for the Identification, Protection, Conservation and Presentation of Natural and Cultural Heritage
7.3	• There is limited cooperation between different levels of government for the identification, protection, conservation and presentation of cultural heritage • There is limited cooperation between different levels of government for the identification, protection, conservation and presentation of natural heritage	Limited cooperation is expressed in the poor implementation of public policies and public investment projects by subnational governments (Municipalities, Regional Governments) within the framework of their powers and functions.	Sub-national governments (Municipalities, Regional Governments) consider that the identification, protection, conservation and enhancement of Cultural Heritage is the responsibility and exclusive function of the Ministry of Culture (National Government).	Authorities of the National Government and subnational governments.	2026	It is necessary to generate governance conditions

8	Financial Status and Human Resources
8.3	• The available budget is inadequate for basic conservation, protection and presentation and is a serious constraint on the capacity to conserve and protect Cultural heritage	The budget of the Ministry of Culture represents only 0.3% of the national budget of the Republic. The 2022 Culture budget decreases compared to 2021 by about 29 million.	The most important budget category in the Culture portfolio for 2022 "is budget program 132, enhancement and social use of cultural heritage." It has 202 million soles. This program represents 34% of the total.	National government	2030	Assistance may be required to finance specific projects
