I. EXAMEN DES LISTES INDICATIVES

1. Le Comité du patrimoine mondial demande à chaque Etat partie de lui soumettre un inventaire des biens culturels et naturels situés sur son territoire dont l'inscription sur la Liste du patrimoine mondial lui semble appropriée et dont il a l'intention d'en proposer l'inscription dans les cinq ou dix prochaines années. L'objet de ces inventaires, appelé aussi Listes indicatives, est de permettre au Comité du patrimoine mondial d'évaluer dans le contexte le plus large possible la « valeur universelle exceptionnelle » de chaque bien proposé pour inscription sur la Liste. A sa 24e session (Cairns, 2000), le Comité a confirmé l'importance de ces listes pour les besoins de la planification, les analyses comparatives des propositions d'inscription et pour faciliter la mise en route des études globales et thématiques. Il a également décidé que les Listes indicatives seraient obligatoires pour tous les biens dont l'Etat partie a l'intention de proposer l'inscription sur la Liste du patrimoine mondial.
2. De plus, selon le paragraphe 65 des Orientations (2005), les Etats parties doivent soumettre les Listes indicatives de préférence au moins un an avant la soumission de toute proposition d'inscription. Les Etats parties sont encouragés à réétudier et à soumettre à nouveau leur Liste indicative au moins tous les dix ans.
3. En conséquence, le Comité du patrimoine mondial invite les Etats parties qui ne l'ont pas encore fait à soumettre dès que possible les Listes indicatives conformément aux Orientations (2005), étant entendu que « l'assistance préparatoire devrait être fournie, si nécessaire, et demandée par l'Etat partie concerné ».
4. Il est utile de rappeler ici les recommandations concernant les Listes indicatives de la Réunion spéciale d'experts sur « Le concept de valeur universelle exceptionnelle », Kazan, Fédération de Russie, (avril 2005) (document WHC-05/29.COM/9).

Les experts ont recommandé que :

- chaque Etat partie mette en place un mécanisme de coordination composé de représentants de plusieurs disciplines qui sera chargé d'entreprendre et de superviser la mise en œuvre de la Convention du patrimoine mondial et en particulier la préparation et la révision de la Liste indicative ;
- les Listes indicatives soient considérées comme faisant partie intégrante des efforts de conservation du patrimoine national ;
- les biens inscrits sur les Listes indicatives bénéficient d'une reconnaissance nationale et/ou toute autre reconnaissance appropriée ;
- les Listes indicatives soient établies avec la participation des communautés locales et des autochtones, avec une consultation publique le cas échéant ;
- les Listes indicatives soient établies en tenant compte de la Stratégie globale, des études comparatives et de l'analyse des lacunes effectuées par les Organisations consultatives ;

- les Listes indicatives soient établies en tenant compte des autres conventions et programmes internationaux ;
  - lors de la préparation de leur Liste indicative, les Etats parties soient rigoureux dans leur évaluation locale, afin que les attentes associées à l'inscription soient en phase avec la réalité ;
  - la taille des Listes indicatives tienne compte de la décision de Cairns-Suzhou (décision 28 COM 13.1) et du cycle décennal recommandé par les Orientations (paragraphe 65) ;
  - l'analyse comparative soit effectuée par région et par thème ;
  - des réunions régionales sur l'harmonisation des Listes indicatives définissent des types de biens à proposer pour inscription dans une région donnée et des biens susceptibles d'être inscrits en tant que biens transnationaux ou transfrontaliers ;
  - les Organisations consultatives achèvent leurs études thématiques puis lancent et facilitent dès que possible des études régionales et comparatives selon un calendrier qui permette aux Etats parties d'identifier les catégories et thèmes pertinents en vue de l'achèvement de toutes les Listes indicatives en 2007 et de la révision des Listes indicatives existantes ;
  - les Etats parties qui n'ont pas de Liste indicative soient encouragés à demander le cas échéant l'Assistance internationale préparatoire pour établir leur Liste indicative ;
  - dans la limite de leurs ressources les Organisations consultatives fassent sur demande des commentaires sur les Listes indicatives de tous les Etats parties ;
  - le Centre du patrimoine mondial et les Organisations consultatives produisent une compilation des meilleures pratiques et publient des manuels de formation ;
  - le Centre du patrimoine mondial réalise un guide indiquant aux propriétaires des biens et aux parties prenantes la procédure et les conditions à remplir pour faire inscrire un bien sur la Liste du patrimoine mondial, et clarifiant les attentes concernant les bénéfices et les engagements qui peuvent résulter d'une telle inscription.
5. A la date du 20 avril 2006, sur 182 Etats parties qui ont ratifié la Convention, 151 Etats parties ont soumis des Listes indicatives en conformité avec les critères spécifiés dans les Orientations (2005), 31 Etats parties n'ont pas soumis de Liste indicative. Toutes les propositions d'inscription soumises pour examen en 2006 (voir document WHC-06/30.COM/8B) figurent sur les Listes indicatives des Etats concernés.
6. Conformément à la décision 27 COM 8A, paragraphe 4, ce document présente, dans une annexe séparée, les nouvelles Listes indicatives et les ajouts aux Listes indicatives depuis le 15 mai 2005. Depuis la 29e session du Comité du patrimoine mondial (Durban, 2005), 24 Etats parties ont soumis de nouvelles Listes indicatives ou modifié les Listes existantes. Le nombre de nouveaux biens ajoutés aux Listes indicatives du fait de ces changements est de 87. Ces biens sont présentés à l'annexe 2 de ce

7. Conformément à la décision 7 EXT.COM 4A, les biens déjà inscrits sur la Liste du patrimoine mondial ont été retirés des Listes indicatives des Etats parties.
8. Conformément à la décision 27 COM 8A, paragraphe 5, les Listes indicatives complètes sont mises à la disposition du public à l'adresse Internet du Centre du patrimoine mondial suivante : <http://whc.unesco.org/fr/listesindicatives>.
